After-School Boy's/Girl's Student Contract

Eligibility

- Students participating in interscholastic competition must have a cumulative GPA of at least a 2.0 during the previous grading period.
- If students receive negative comments (from teachers) on behavior or serve a detention/suspension during the school year, there will be a loss of privileges that will affect participation in athletics.
- A middle school student may participate in interscholastic athletic competition until reaching the age of 15 years, 9 months.
- Students participating in interscholastic competition must receive an athletic physical from a physician prior to the beginning of practices for interscholastic games.
- Students or coaches who are ejected from a game by a certified official will be ineligible to participate in the next immediate game as well, which includes sitting on the bench or taking warm-ups with the team. A second offence will automatically and immediately suspend the offending player or coach for the remainder of the season.

I _____ have read the above contract and will abide by the rules.
